

The Co-operative University of Kenya

END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATION APRIL-2019

EXAMINATION FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF CO-OPERATIVE BUSINESS
(YR II SEM II)

UNIT CODE: BUCU 2104/HRD 2102

UNIT TITLE: DEVELOPMENT STUDIES & ETHICS

DATE: 8TH APRIL, 2019

TIME: 9:00 AM – 11:00 AM

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Answer question ONE (compulsory) and any other TWO questions

QUESTION ONE

- By use of five examples discuss how development concepts can be achieved. (10 marks)
- Most of the modern development agents through their intervention tend to address contemporary development issues through three major ways. Discuss those ways. (6 marks)
- The goal of Human development is to enhance capabilities hence, reduce development constraints commonly called un-freedoms. Explain some of those forms of un-freedoms development partners engage in reducing in society. (10 marks)
- Highlight four indicators of development. (4 marks)

QUESTION TWO

- According to Emile Durkheim a society is outlined in two forms, traditional society and modern society. According to him what are the characteristic of a modern society. (10 marks)
- Discuss five ethical issues arising in development work. (10 marks)

QUESTION THREE

- Gender is a socially assignment roles of both men and women. Explain five issues affecting gender. (10 marks)
- Explain five disadvantages of using GDP as a measure of economic development especial in developing nations. (10 marks)

QUESTION FOUR

- Discuss five principles of good governance. (10 marks)
 - Define the term policy. (2 marks)
- ii. What kind of strategies the government of Kenya have adopted to help fight the spread of HIV/AIDS. (8 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

- a) Discuss five Socio-Economic and political principles of achieving the Kenyan Vision 2030. (10 marks)
- b) Give the categories of dependency developing nations find themselves in. (10 marks)