

The Co-operative University College of Kenya
(A Constituent College of Jomo Kenyatta University of Agriculture & Technology)

END OF SEMESTER EXAMINATIONS APRIL-2015

EXAMINATIONS FOR THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF CO-OPERATIVE BUSINESS (YR1 SEM 1)

COURSE CODE: HCOB 2401

UNIT TITLE: CO-OPERATIVE DEVELOPMENT POLICIES AND ANALYSIS

DATE: APRIL, 2015

TIME: 9.00 A.M. – 11. 00 A.M.

INSTRUCTIONS:

- Answer question ONE (compulsory) and any other TWO questions

QUESTION ONE

- (a) Since independence, the Kenya Government has encouraged the growth and development of co-operative as a fundamental part of public policy
- Explain the meaning of public policy (3 marks)
 - Describe FIVE important contents of any policy document. (15 marks)
- (b) Discuss the essence of co-operative policy in addressing the problem of poverty alleviation in a nation. (12 marks)

QUESTION TWO

Trace the evaluation of co-operative policies in Kenya from 1966 to date and highlight the major changes and consequences of these policies. (20 marks)

QUESTION THREE

Discuss FIVE key co-operative development policy issues that affect the Kenyan Co-

QUESTION FOUR

- (a) Explain the nature of development planning and its importance to co-operative development policy. (4 marks)
- (b) Discuss the major reasons for development planning in Kenya. (16 marks)

QUESTION FIVE

“Despite an impressive record of development & planning many developing countries have experienced little development progress” Discuss. (20 marks)